

CPA Self Aligning Lifting Tab

The CPA Self Aligning Lifting Tab is an affordable solution for maintain the orientation of a CPA Flow Conditioner as well as a assisting with removal and reinstallation of the plate from the meter tube.

- Designed for ANSI raised face flanges.
- Available for ANSI 150# to 2500#.
- Size and bolt pattern based on desired flange size and ANSI pressure rating.
- Tab bolt holes guarantee that the flow conditioner top dead center orientation is maintained.
- For larger sizes, lifting tab helps with installation and removal.
- Plate specifications are engraved on the tab face, allowing easier viewing when in the field.
- Many material choices available, tabs are made to match flow conditioner material.
- Available on new CPA50E's or as retro-fits for existing plates.

For More Information:

Please contact info@cpacl.ca for more information or for quotes on different applications.

